mycurlyadventures_ • DIY Weekend Itinerary (And meetup in less than 24 hours!!)

I love a good weekend of DIYing and creating things (especially if I can wear them after) and it's part of why I feel like @visitboerne is the perfect place for something like this.

You can enjoy cute rooms @thekendalltx and then just walk around the @hillcountrymile where there are so many cute little boutiques offering all kinds of things just steps away! No car needed!

Plus you can sip while walking around the Hill Country Mile

boernelife THIS CHRISTMAS-THEMED TAVERN IS NOW OPEN

The wait is finally over! Come with me for a visit to @boernefrostedjack Boerne's newest cocktail bar!

Sip warm drinks like Holly & Smoke (think mezzal hot toddy) or cool refreshing libations like Rudolph's Ruby Collin's (a refreshing pomegranate vodka concoction) in a festive environment with Christmas decorations all around!

This winter wonderland is open 3-10 pm all week, and 1-10 pm on the weekends.

Located in the old hospital building next to @bearmoonbakery, this Christmas pop up is cozy and full of history.

The patio is great too - It's like huddling around the fire pit in your friend's backyard for a Christmas party.

421 S. Main St.
Boerne, TX 78006

See you there tonight!
