SUMMARY	As you know, the City contracted with Kendall County Elections to handle the General Election. This year we had a joint election with Boerne ISD. The Election Board will be reconvening on May 15, 2017 to review any overseas ballots or provisional ballots. (People that voted without their photo ID have six days to present it for their ballot to be counted). At the time the City Council agenda/packet had to be posted to meet the Open Meetings requirement, totals had not been received from the Elections Office, therefore the Resolution certifying the canvass of the election returns, declaring the outcome of the May 6, 2017 General Election included in the packet is not complete. A completed Resolution will be placed at the dais for your review before the meeting on May 17, 2017. Oaths of Office will be administered at the May 23, 2017 City Council Meeting.
