- Major Arterial: Solid red line.
- Major Arterial Outside ETJ: Dashed red line.
- Minor Arterial: Solid purple line.
- Minor Arterial Outside ETJ: Dashed purple line.
- Primary Collector: Solid orange line.
- Primary Collector Outside ETJ: Dashed orange line.
- Secondary Collector: Solid green line.
- Unclassified Roads: Thin grey line.
- City Limits: Indicated by a dashed line.

The map shows several labeled roads and features:

- Major Arterials: Interstate 10 (I-10), IH 10 W Access, and Old San Antonio (in the south).
- Minor Arterials: Main (in the north and south), Herff, and Old San Antonio (in the east).
- Primary Collectors: Frey, Christus, and Main (in the north).
- Other Roads: School, Plant, Esser, Champion, River, and Banderera.
- Geographic Features: The map shows a mix of urban areas with buildings and parking lots, and large green spaces with trees. A river is visible in the upper right quadrant.
